Mary Ann Jackson Love was born December 4, 1924, and died peacefully on Wednesday, February 3, 2016, in Ferriday, Louisiana. She was born one of three sisters in Dyer, Tennessee to John and Louella Jackson. She graduated from Dyer High School, Stephens College in Columbia, Missouri, and LSU, where she was a member of the Delta Delta Delta sorority. While at LSU, Mary Ann was chosen Homecoming Queen, "LSU Beauty" and Queen of the LSU Dept. of Agriculture from which she graduated with a degree in Home Economics. She met her future husband, Capt. She was preceded in death by her parents, her sisters Emily Combs and Dorothy Roberts, her husband of 59 years Lloyd and her son-in-law Richard

Mayo.

She is survived by her children, Phyllis Mayo of Baton Rouge, Lou Love and companion Ann Davey of Bridgeport, West Virginia, Julie Cole and husband Bernard of Ferriday, and Jim Love and companion Mary Cay Guidry of Lafayette, LA., grandchildren, Jake Christopher Mayo and wife Emily of Baton Rouge, La., Erik Mayo of New Orleans, La, Emily Cole Dawkins & husband Stephen of Ferriday, La., and Katie Love Cole of New York City; and four great-grandchildren, Hill & Molly Mayo, Emma & Olivia Dawkins.
