“ My prayers and thoughts are with Anne's family. I am a cousin on her mother's side and unfortunately our families lived far apart and were not able to spend much time together but I grew up with the memory of she and her sister, Merry, being at our home in Belle Fourche, SD and all of us brushing our teeth together and getting ready for bed. I believe my mother still has the picture. Silly but sweet. Take care of yourselves during this time and may your Higher Power, whomever/whatever it may be, be with you.

“ My deepest sympathies to all of Anne's family. I grew up with Anne and Merry in Emporia, our homes within sight of each other. There are so many memories that I cherish; making mud pies in the then vacant lot next door, riding our bikes, playing in her basement or mine, learning to cook in her kitchen, swimming at the country club, riding my horses around in our backyards, football in the back yard with my brothers and other neighborhood kids, sledding down the big hill, sneaking through Theresa's gardens, and sleepovers where we shared our dreams of for the future. I am so glad that she found her biological family. I attached a photograph that was taken in my back yard, mid 1960's, Merry, Anne and myself all dressed up and ready for our next great adventure! “ It is hard to think of life continuing on without Annie; she was generous and loving; she lived life to its fullest. My heart is broken. My thoughts and prayers are with Rich, Wally, Lois, Jolene, and all who grieve for Annie. She would not have wanted us to cry; but to celebrate her life with memories and laughter. Her spirit remains with us; may she rest in peace.

This much I have learned: within the sorrow there is grace. When we come close to the things that break us down, we touch those things that also break us open. This is the point of healing: when we have told the story, we can leave the story behind. What remains is hidden wholeness, alive and unbroken. ~ from HOW THEN SHALL WE LIVE by Wayne Muller

Love the photos that Dana passed along - thank you! I'm adding an old photo - one of my favorites - of a shared birthday party many years ago. Since our birthdays were both in June, and we were only a year apart, growing up we often had a joint party. I will never forget the year when we both wanted troll dolls and we told we could not have them ... but we passed the word along to friends and received numerous troll dolls at our party, much to our parents chagrin!

With love from Merry (Annie's sister) and brother-in-law Dan
