“ Genie Lee Morace was more than a Brother to me. BJ you are my hero forever and always. I couldn't imagine having someone better than you by my side. Of all the things someone should remember about you is that your heart was the biggest part of your character. You gave more to others than they ever gave of themselves to anyone and never asked for anything in return. BJ gave me a lot of gifts as I grew up. He gave me bravery, courage, and compassion. BJ was brave because he pushed boundaries even when he had set backs. BJ had Courage because he knew those set back were going to come but didn't let that stop him. BJ showed compassion in the fact that he was giving of himself with out question. BJ was a true Brothers Keeper. I will always have you with me in my heart my badge and my beat.
