“ I met Carmen several years ago while visiting mutual friends, G.W. Welsh and Sherri Freeman. Carmen was always a pleasure to talk with and we discussed many interesting topics. I have great admiration for the strong character she presented and consider her a blessing to have crossed paths with. May she rest peacefully.

“ I am a childhood friend of Carmen's. My dad Frank Wichman was a close friend to her dad Woodrow. We were always visiting them. Many years ago. We grew up and went our separate ways. I will lift family up in my prayers that God may strengthen you through this. God bless you all.
