

Cindy Walters

October 12, 1956 - August 21, 2019

A private family Celebration of Life service for Cindy Walters, 62, of Vidalia, LA will be held at a later date.

Alice Cynthia Walters was born on Friday, October 12, 1956 in Natchez, MS, and passed away peacefully at her home on Wednesday, August 21, 2019. She was a resident of Vidalia and co-owned and operated Ricky's Auto with her husband for 29 years. Cindy and her husband enjoyed riding motorcycle's with their family and friends for many years. She also enjoyed fishing and taking care of her many animals.

When Cindy departed this plane of existence she left behind her soul mate Ricky. The last words Cindy shared with her husband was her love for him. Her eyes bright with the love for him shown upon him so that he would always cherish this time even though his heart was breaking. Their love and joy shared will always live on in him. Whenever their sons view themselves in the mirror, they will always see her in themselves.

Cindy is preceded in death by her father, GT Kelly.

Cindy is survived by her loving husband of 45 years, Ricky Walters of Vidalia, LA; mother, Grace Kelly of Washington, MS; two sons, Rick Walters and Natasha of Murphysboro, TN; and John Walters of Vidalia, LA; eight grandchildren, Darren, Hailey, Faith, Hanna Grace, Eli, Malachi, Promise and Alyssa Walters; brother, Buddy Kelly of Jackson, MS, sister, Frances Garner of Natchez, and sister-in-law Frances Sikes of Alexandria.

“ Ricky and family, I share your loss. Cindy was an absolute joy to be around in our days around Hicks Auto. Her infectious laugh and smiles even with health issues were both a joy and inspiration. She will be greatly missed but always remembered. Love Randy Hicks and family.
