“ Dear Hank: I was truly sorry to hear about your loss. I want you to know that even though I never met your mom I feel like I knew her through my knowing you. You are in my thoughts and prayers during this difficult time. If there is anything I can do, please feel free to ask. God Bless you and your family.

“ Hank and Kim and families,
You are in my thoughts and prayers. Mrs. Joyce had a way of lifting your spirits with her smile. Just remember that God uses our difficulties to develop our character. May God be with you all during this difficult time.

“ Hank and Kim, Please know that you are in my thoughts and prayers during this time. I am so appreciative of what your Dad and Mom did when my Mom had her heart attack a few years ago. I've never forgotten it and am so grateful they were there. Again, my heartfelt condolences to your families. Look to HIM who sees and understands your sorrow. Eric Mize

“ Kim and Hank and extended Family, We offer our deepest sympathies to you at this time of sorrow. Our lives have overlapped for many years; we have special memories of all the Rabbs. Joyce's smiles and laughter will be a fond memory. Go with God, our dear friends; He will keep you in His loving care, as you reach out to Him. A favorite line from "Footprints" says, "...during your times of trial and suffering, when you see only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you." We love you.
