“ To the Davis Family,

We send our hearts and prayers out to you in this time of grief. We will never understand why Cody but we guess that's not for us to decide. Cody was an amazing, caring, loving guy. He always knew just what to say to make us smile. And that smile was so contagious you just couldn't help to notice. Everytime he come to the house he walked right in the door like he owned the place. But we didn't mind. He was welcome here anytime. He would come in and flop down on the couch and give us both big, heart warming hugs. The kind of hug that we know come straight from his heart. He was the most understanding person. If it weren't for him we wouldn't be together today. When we were fighting Cody would always come over and make us talk. Something that he was learning to do himself. He was never ashamed of what he did or what he said. He was always trying to help. That's why we love him so much. Not a day goes by that we don't miss him deeply. We will always remember Cody and he will live in our hearts forever.

“ Lori and Moose... We will always remember the smiles and laughter when Cody came around. He always knew what to say to make everyone laugh, that is what I will miss the most. (And those 'it will be alright' hugs) I remember when our car was ran into the ditch. He came by with his friends and got it out. He was such a comfort to me then and I am so thankful for everything he has done for me. We love you all and you will always be in our prayers. Love Jeremy and Jessica

“ Dear Lori and Steve; When I think back to all of the good times that we've shared as a family, my heart is there with you now. In 1972, when my brother, Timothy, died, we didn't have "Touched By An Angel" to help Mother and Dad understand. But God did a little miracle in 1992 -- I was asked to play for a wedding and Della Reese was the Minister. When I told her how much her show helped my family get through the difficult times, she said, "Honey, that's why I get up every morning and go to work." Remember the good times, all of the great food, and (although it will be hard) watch "Touched By An Angel". Thank God for re-runs! It's remarkable how much like Aunt Hazel you remind me of. She taught me what it means, "We do our best, and trust God for the rest. The Lord won't let you down." Sincerely, Rev. Brie Cooper, Jodie Hart Ministries, Los Angeles, CA

“ Stevie, Lori, Valarie, Paul and Karlie Jo
Cody was very special to us. He was always so loving and kind.
There are no words to explain how much Cody meant to us. He was like a little brother to Jill and another son to us. Our hearts go out to you and we are praying for you. I can't even imagine going through this two times. We will be praying for you not only now but in the months and years ahead. When it seems everyone has forgotten, we will still be holding you up in prayer.
We love you all so much. Freddie and Sue Bass

“ I first met Cody when he was 12,(my brother Beau and him played on the same baseball team)little did I know I made a friend for life.
He was always so full of life and showing off that "Million-Dollar Smile" we will always remember him because of the light that shined around him. We are going to miss him deeply and keep ya'll in our prayers always.

“ Lori & Stevie words cannot begin to explain how many lives your son has touched. His contagious smile was a blessing to everyone he came into contact with. Catahoula Parish will never be the same for he was ONE of a kind. I will always remember him wanting to ride with me in my squad car. He would say "turn the lights on and lets see how fast this baby will go Mr. Ben". My answer was always the same No Cody we cant do that and his reply was the same as well "I think I can take you in my ole truck". He would smile and say Ok see yah later.

The world needs more CTD's in it for it would be a better place to live. Anyone that knew Cody knew he was raised right because he always showed RESPECT, LOVE & CHARITY. God must have needed some help working on an ole truck. Cody I will always remember you when I turn my lights on. See yah on the other side man.

LOVE & PRAYERS

“ Lori, Stevie and Val... There are no words that will make this better or go away, I'm sorry is all anyone can say. As you already know Cody was special to not only you but to everyone he touched. He loved life and would make whatever kind of day you were having always seem better. I close my eyes and I see him kicked back in my chair, talking about what he did the night before, full of excitement, who he was going to be with and everyone craved to be that person that he was to be with. I will miss his nonstop talking about his fun, who he helped that day, his White Stallion, the raking off of his pipes as he came by my house (which he thought drove me crazy), but it didn't... that was my way of knowing he made it home safe. I sat here yesterday and listen to all the trucks going by the house and I cried cause I knew that none of them were my Sugar Baby. Know that I'm here for all of you if you need me. My heart and prayers go out to you and I love Cody like he was my own, he will be "GREATLY MISSED"

“Lori, Steve and Valarie-There are no words to say that can even begin to describe how you all must be feeling or what you are going through. Just know that you are in our prayers and our thoughts. God is going to see you through this, he is our refuge in time of need. Cody was a wonderful young man, just as Vince was. I remember the laughs we had with both of them while at Wurster. I'm sure there was a great reunion when Vince welcomed Cody with open arms. He will truly be missed. We love you - Tonda, Mike, Shane & Tyler Spence

“Mrs. Lori & Mr. Stevie I want you to know that your son was an amazing person. His personality was bigger than others. You knew when Cody was around. He was the life of the party and always put a smile on your face. The last time I saw Cody was just about 2 weeks ago and he come up to me and gave me one of those great big hugs that he gave to everyone, wearing those old smelly, holey shoes. He was so loving and caring. Thats the Cody I will remember. He touched the lives of so many people. Even if you didn't know him personally you knew of him. It's so hard to believe that he is gone. What are we going to do without Cody. My thoughts and prayers go out to you and your family. He will be missed tremendously by many.

“ Lori and Steve,

We are so sorry for your loss. I knew of Cody's existence pretty much from when he was born since I knew Lori. But, I got to know Cody the year of summer school at Monroe. When it was my turn to chaperon on the bus, Cody was the one to start conversation with me. I found out very quickly that he possessed a rare and special gift very few people of any age have, of being able to interact and communicate with just about everyone, regardless their age. I was very comfortable with him. He was so excited about you giving him his special truck (if I remember right, it had been Vince's) and letting him take it up to catch the bus. When we dropped him off that afternoon, he said, "You've got to hear my truck!" and asked Ms Carolyn Rose to wait just a minute before she left. He ran to his truck to get it started so we could hear it. After that day in Monroe with those kids, he has a place in my heart forever.

The last time I saw him was Mother's Day when he and Jennifer came to Keith and Mindy's. He came in and put those long arms around me with one of those famous hugs and wished me happy Mother's Day. In between are so many memories...working with him and the other teens in the presentation we did on 'The Judgment' and later with Jennifer at Keith and Mindy's for crawfish boils and volleyball. He was always so much fun to be around.

In the last few months, he and Tyler had become 'running buddies'. Tyler really looked up to him. When the water this spring was the highest, they had trot lines on Little River behind the house our preacher's wife is having built. She had placed a bench on the river bank and not been able to get it moved before water took it. When they put the lines out, they were unable to find it. Later, a broken line "found" the bench and they were able to pull it in. (I think that was one of the days they both went "swimming".) Tyler came in that day telling me that Cody wasn't satisfied with just getting it to the bank. They had to load it into the back of his truck, take it somewhere and pressure wash it. Then they rode around town looking for Ms Sandra to show it to her before taking it back to the house. Cody was so proud they had found and gotten it in for her. He was a precious and awesome kid, well on his way to being a fine *man. We are all going to miss him so much. Our love and prayers for God's strength and comfort are with you all.

“ To the Davis family - My heart goes out to each and every one of you. Cody was a great person and friend. I remember him when he played ball with Samuel and have watched him grow into a very great young man. Every where Cody was there were always people with smiles on their faces. Kimberly was a good friend of his too and will miss his loving sweet self and those great smiles. You are in our prayers and thoughts daily. May God give you the strength to make it through this loss in your lives. May God Bless and love from the Ogden family.
