To the family of Delena. You don't know me but it's seems like I knew everyone of you. I was a client of Delena's for years. And I heard about everyone of you. Loved that loud and funny girl. May you have some peace knowing that she loved everyone and everyone loved her.

“ I am writing this on behalf of my mom, Annie Lawrence, who had a weekly hair appointment with Delena. My mom always enjoyed her time with Delena. Delena was a very caring person. She would walk my mom out to her car with an umbrella when it was raining , and she always made my mom feel special. She will be greatly missed.

“ I was so shocked to hear of your passing on. Now, you can stop toiling your heart over the hearts of others. That's what you're about. Loving. Serving. I was looking forward to seeing you again. Thank you for all your big ole smiles and stories during haircuts. I'm going to miss those. Take your rest, sweet lady. Our sad hearts will recover. We will imagine you in the arms of our loving Heavenly Father. And you can know you sowed a lot of love into a lot of folks. Thank you for the privilege of knowing you, even though it should've been more. God's working something here. Enjoy your reunion with your loved ones. For Delena's friends and family and everyone who ever was blessed by her smiles and caring, we pray God heals your hearts well. Sorrow lasts for a little while, but you know she would be upset if you were weighed down with too much sadness on her behalf. Rejoice with her. Cry, think, feel then rejoice. We are blessed to have known her. Much love and comfort to you all.

“ My heart is very sad when I heard the news of your passing. We shared lots of laughs when you would cut my hair about both our Dads and their fishing outings. Deepest sympathy and prayers for your family and friends that are missing you so very much. Can't make it on Tuesday for your service because of a previous commitment -- but know that I will be keeping all of your family and friends in my prayers in the coming months. Your smile certainly did light a room, girl. Will miss you. RIP my friend.
