

Edith Pauline Landry

September 18, 1926 - May 16, 2011

Graveside funeral services for Ms. Edith Pauline Landry, 84, of Natchez, MS will be Thursday May 19, 2011, 2:00 PM at Natchez City Cemetery with her Nephew Rev. Gary Hanberry officiating. Interment will follow at Natchez City Cemetery under the direction of Young's Funeral Home.

Ms. Landry was born on September 18, 1926 in Ponchatoula, LA and passed away Monday, May 16, 2011 at Adams County Nursing Home in Natchez. She was a resident of Natchez, a Lab Technician and she proudly served her country in the United States Air Force.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Leo T. Landry and Virginia Landry; one son, Paul Bernard Humpherys; and one sister, Doris Hanberry.

Survivors include her one brother, Leo Landry and wife, Barbara, of Brandon, Ms.; one sister, Frances Nosser of Natchez; and host of nieces and nephews.

Pallbearers will be her nephews, John Nosser, Joe Nosser, Reggie Hanberry, Joel Hanberry and Tommy Landry.

The family will receive friends prior to the graveside services on Thursday May 19, 2011 from 12:00 PM to 1:00 PM at Young's Funeral Home in Ferriday.

Tribute Wall

AG

“ It is so comforting to know when a person leaves here where they are going. I remember Pauline for the Christian she will always be. The testimony I know she will have when she stands before Jesus. I'm sorry she was ill for so long. I can just imagine her on streets of gold still preaching the gospel. My heartfelt sympathy for her family. Love you, Annette

Annette Galloway - May 19, 2011 at 12:00 AM