“ My name is Robert... Freddie and I go back many years..
It's easy to remember many of the great bass fishing trips Freddie and I used to do all over, but especially at Lake Mary in Southwest Mississippi.
I was able to teach Freddie some of the basics of electricity and doughnut making.
Freddie was the sort of person that when slightly pointed in any direction, he would pick it up well himself and usually would and did improve on things.
He was my wife Frans brother and wass loved dearly by Fran and well respected by me.
Since Frans death at the end of 1989 we sort of loss touch... but the memories did and allways will last forever. We'll all miss you buddy and hope you rest in peace. Bro. Bob
