“ Gary was a sweet loving son to his Mom & Dad. I remember the summers that we would go & stay with my aunt, uncle & cousins. We always had a great time playing Mother May I & of course my uncle said that we always cheated. Going to town & church & usually stopping by the store in Clayton after church & getting something to drink & a candy bar. And don't forget the goodies off of the Tuminello grocery bus that came by the house. Gary will be truly missed by all that knew and loved him. No doubt he is in heaven with all of the loved ones gone before him enjoying the reunion. My prayers with Aunt Edwina, Uncle Ray, Sheila, Cheryl & their children & grandchildren. Love you. Minena
