“ I know it is almost a year later...but i have just now gotten to the emotional part of my grieving. when i first heard, i did not cry, i did not feel much at all. It really didn't hit me what that boy meant to me until I went to call him and he wasnt there to answer. We made plans when we were young and in love to move to Montana together and live together forever. he was my very first kiss and my very first love. We wanted to run away together. i know you will never read this mrs kristi or morgan, but it makes me feel better to get it off of my chest finally! i still do not plan on seeing Montana until i have him back to share it with me. i truly love him and will always miss him.

“ Kristi, We were so very sorry to hear of your loss. Having lost a child ourselves, we know what you are going through and how bad it hurts. There will always be an empty part of your heart and the hurt will never go away, but over time it does get easier to cope. Remember the good times and cherish the memories. If you need to talk or need anything at all you know where we are, don't hesitate to call.

“ Kristi, Jimmy, and Morgan,

I am so sorry for your loss. Hunter was such a wonderful young man. He was always so polite. I hope I had a little to do with that since he was my little man for awhile. Kristi as you know I lost my daughter when she was 2 yrs old. I will tell you it will take alot of time to heal. I still after 25 years still have my crying moments. Sometimes you will see someone or something and it will make you laugh or cry. Enjoy all of the memories that you have and cherish each one. If you ever just need to talk give me a call and I will be there for you no matter what time day or night. I know we do not see each other that much but I think about you often. Just remember Kristi that you are a remarkable mother and did a wonderful job raising Hunter and Morgan. Always keep Hunter close in your heart.

I love you

“ Joe, Kristie and families...I just recently had the pleasure of meeting your beautiful son and let me tell you, yes he was covered in mud!! Sounds as if that was just where he wanted to be! He was very polite and well mannered and I asked him about his parents and how all was doing. You have alot to be proud of. My son met Hunter through Lil' John Case and really liked him and admired him for what he had accomplished in his short life. He was a very good looking boy and seemed to be on his way!! Hold close to your memories!! I am so very sorry about your loss!!! Thoughts and prayers Joe and Kristie!!!

“ Mrs Kristie,
I would like to first of all tell you I am truly sorry for the loss of Hunter, he was an amazing guy. He was always upbeat and full of life. Whenever I needed something he was right there on the spot. He used to give me piggy back rides when we were younger and he taught me not to be afraid of the dark, lol the things that little kids do for each other. He will be truly missed. May God be with you and your family during this tragic time.

“ Mrs. Kristie,
I am so sorry about your tragic loss of Hunter. He was such a bright, upbeat person. I can remember those days he would walk down to my house to catch the bus with me. He always had a smile on his face and was always very entertaining. Hunter will be missed tremendously. He will always be a part of the Sulphur Spring Kids. May you lean on God in this tough time!

My heart goes out to you and yours during these clouded days of mourning. I can't even begin to imagine the hollowness you're feeling at the moment. But my sweet, you are one of the strongest women I can honestly say that I'm acquainted with; you always have been. I've so very much respect for you.
Even though I won't be there to express my condolences personally, please know that you are and have been, in my thoughts daily~ and will continue being so...
Bless you Kristi Keahey...

“ We are thinking of you, we love you, and we are praying for you. May God give you strength and comfort in the days ahead. Kristi - from one mother to another i can not begin to imagine the loss you are feeling. I only wish we lived closer so I could do more. It seems only a few years ago y'all were here for our wedding and Hunter and Holly were playing on the little slide in the living room. Hunter was a beautiful child and grew into such a handsome young man. I pray that God will flood you with happy memories of your precious Hunter.
