“Howard, I am so sorry for you and your family losing Josh. I know when I spoke with him he was happy to be out working with his dad, I cannot imagine the unbearable pain you feel. I know that God has embraced him in his loving arms and granted him eternal peace. Hoping the following gives you a bit of peace;
"Do not stand at my grave and weep
I am not there, I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow,
I am the diamond glints on the snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain;
I am the gentle summer's rain.
When you awaken in the morning's hush,
I am the swift uplifting rush,
Of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft star that shines at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry,
I am not there, I did not die."
He will always be with you, engraved in your heart forever more, just look around and open your eyes he is in everything you do, and all around you.
Sincerest sympathy, Love, Angie

“I was Joshua Driller for 6 days and in them 6 days this young man made a lasting impact on my life. He was one of them people that are far in few in your life. By chance I was lucky to get to meet him. He will be missed by the people that surrounded his life.

“ When we lose someone we love, it seems that time stands still. What moves through us is a silence, a quiet sadness, a longing for one more day, one more word, one more touch, we may not understand why you left this earth so soon, or why you left before we were ready to say goodbye but little by little, we begin to remember not just that you died, but that you lived, and that your life gave us memories too beautiful to forget.
