

Mr. Kenny Halford

January 27, 1955 - June 12, 2018

Memorial service for Kenneth Marvin Halford, 63, of Vidalia, LA, whom died Tuesday, June 12, 2018, will be held at 3:00 p.m., Monday, June 18, at Roxie Baptist Church with Rev. Vann Windom and Rev. Jamie Wallace officiating. Mr. Halford was born on January 27, 1955 to parents James Kenneth Halford and Walterine Moore Halford of Roxie, MS.

Kenny was raised in Roxie, MS where he attended Franklin Christian Academy and graduated with honors as the Valedictorian of the 1973 class. He continued his education at Copiah Lincoln Community College and Mississippi State University.

He was employed for more than 30 years by Live Oak Landscapes and Nursery in Natchez, MS. He was a landscaper by trade, and his green thumb brought an abundance of beauty to this world.

Mr. Halford grew up as a member of Roxie Baptist Church and was also a lifelong follower of Christ. Kenny loved sports and enjoyed attending live games and watching any games, except ice hockey, on television.

He was preceded in death by his father, James Kenneth Halford; daughter, Nikko Lynn Beach, and his beloved wife of 32 years, Nancy Amox Halford. We can all share in the peace of knowing they are together again in heaven.

Survivors include his mother, Walterine Moore Halford; daughter, Kency Halford of Monroe, LA; son, Chad Beach and Alicia of Vidalia, LA; granddaughter Zoey Drumgo of Monroe, LA; two grandsons, Cameron Cox and Casen Beach, of Vidalia, LA; brother, Darrell Halford and Tammy of Roxie, MS; sister Tricia Beach and Mickey of Roxie, MS; sister Tanya Lee and Ken of Roxie, MS; and sister Marla Murray and Lance of Bude, MS; brother-in-law, Jim Amox and sister-in-law, Gayle Amox Cowan of Vidalia, LA. A number of nephews, nieces, cousins, friends, neighbors, clients, business associates, and co-workers.

Mr. Halford will be laid to rest at Greenlawn Cemetery in Natchez,
