“ What can I really say? You were my dear friend and family member after all these years. You never missed stopping by to see me on your way to the lake. You will be missed and always loved my dear friend. I will miss your calls and talks that we had. You are in God's hands now so lay your head down and rest. God Bless you. I will always love you and you will always be in my heart! It's not goodbye my friend it's I'll see ya!
