Thank you Kay. Everything you said about “Auntie “, was so true. The most gentle and loving soul. Such a refuge in a hard and judgmental family.

“ I am Kay Manning Smith, the daughter of Alvin Manning. I have nothing but very fond memories of Aunt Lois. She was my favorite Aunt when I was a little girl growing up in turbulent times. She was one of my biggest cheerleaders and always offered encouragement which I took in earnest. I thought she was beautiful and the kindest person I would ever know. She also gave the best hugs. She and my mom were friends also. Mom would frequently speak of her and refer to her as our precious Aunt Lois who loved all, did not judge, and good to everyone.

There are many loving memories of this special lady which I have always cherished.

The last time I saw her she asked if I knew how much my dad loved me and how proud he was of his brown haired daughter. Especially when he set me on his knee. This came at a time when I really needed to hear that and I remember feeling as though she knew I did. She was just like that, always making others feel better.

I am sure her entire family is saddened to say goodbye to such a fine person. For one, I choose to think she is in heaven patting someone on the back and singing Christian music with my mom.

*I am so sorry for your loss,
Kay*
