“ *To the Lyrron Crawford Family,
I will miss my wonderful neighbor and friend. I am thankful for the kindness he showed to me and my family over the last 29 years. I can never begin to express the important part Mr. C played in the lives of my late husband Katfish, or Kenny as Mr. C would call him and myself. Mr. C was after all the reason we moved to Trinity. When my husband was laid off from his oilfield sales job in 1987, he had dreams, much to my dismay of becoming an avid fisherman. He met Mr. C while fishing in the Ouachita River and quickly became friends. Mr. Crawford, told Kenneth about the house next door. The salesman in him took over and somehow, my husband talked me into moving on the river. I had my doubts about the small run down house, but the first time I met Mr. and Mrs. C, it was as if we had known these two forever.
Mr. C and Kenny checked on each other daily. Maybe it was just to see who caught the most fish, and to see what bait the fish were hitting on, but I think it was because they truly cared about each other.
After my dear Katfish passed away, seldom a day went by without Mr. C, coming by to check on me, or he and Mrs. Rose would call to see if I needed anything.
Over the years, many changes have taken place in Trinity. Children have grown with families of their own, many happy times, and many sad times as well, but through it all Trinity will always be home. Thoughts of our loved ones will remain in our hearts and the memories forever treasured.
Sympathy and prayers to Mrs. Rose and for the Crawford and McCartney families.
With love,
Cheryl McCartney*
