“ I spent many enjoyable hours with Mattie years ago. She was one of the most caring and considerate people I ever knew. You always were made to feel welcome in her home no matter what was going on. I moved to Arkansas in 1986 and I didn't see Mattie after that but I thought of her with fond memories many times over the years.

“ One sweet woman. She saved my life once when she and I were riding a horse and girth broke. We both fell off and I was lucky enough to fall on top of her which would have been disastrous the other way.
