

Melvin Ray Book

October 25, 2014

Services for Mr. Melvin Ray Book, Sr., 83, of Monterey, LA, will be 10 AM Monday, October 27, 2014, at Monterey First Baptist Church with Rev. John Rushing officiating. Interment to follow in the church cemetery under the direction of Young's Funeral Home; Ferriday, LA.

Mr. Book was preceded in death by his parents John Author and Emma Book, several brothers and a sister. Mr. Book was a member and Deacon of Monterey First Baptist Church and U.S. Army Korean War veteran. He loved to fish and hunt with his family and friends, and members of Gravel Ridge Hunting Club.

He survived by his wife, Stella Book of Monterey, LA; daughter, Melonie Middleton and husband Terry of Vivian, LA; two sons, Melvin Ray Book, Jr., and wife Rebecca of Lake Village, AR and Michael Joe Book and wife Kim of Monroe, LA; ten grandchildren, two great grandchildren, a brother and three sisters.

Pallbearers are Sammy Middleton, Jamie Middleton, JonMichael Book, Terry Middleton, George Book, Brandon Wiley and Bruce Wiley. Honorary pallbearers are Deacons of Monterey First Baptist Church and members of Gravel Ridge Hunting club.

The family will receive friends Sunday October 26 at Monterey First Baptist Church from 5 pm until 7 pm.

Tribute Wall

PB

“ I am praying for all of you and know God will give you peace and strength during this time. Ray was a wonderful Christian man and will be greatly missed. I am proud to have known him and to have him as my friend. Sending love and prayers and thoughts to each of you.

Peggy Ogg Bartlett - October 26, 2014 at 12:00 AM