“ On the one hand, we are deeply saddened at the news of Nancy's passing. On the other hand, we are overjoyed that she is now in a much better place. We are thinking of and praying for all those that mourn her departure. Our prayer is that Nancy's family and friends may find solace in the Lord, who is ever ready to wrap each and every one of us His mighty arms with unending love and grace. A personal note from Vic: "I cannot think of one instance that Nancy was ever unkind to me, and I cherish the fond memories that I have of her...she showed me that it's okay to be a person of deep feeling and emotion...many guys often sharply discourage other guys from showing such deep emotions, but Nancy taught me that this is nonsense...after all, such deep-rooted emotions were given to us by our Creator, so why try to hide it? Anyhow...thank you, Nancy, for reminding me that it's completely okay to just "be myself" concerning my deep-seated emotions; I think that this is one lesson that you and I were both privileged to glean from your father...my grandfather...Glen C. Amox. Oh, and please give my grandfather, Glen, a big hug from me, Nancy...you'll now see him again way before I do!"

“ So very sorry to hear of Nancy's death. I remember her as a genuinely nice person. So many of our classmates have passed away but we hold their memories in our hearts for as long as we live. Love, Janice Merritt Turnage class of '68 VHS.
