“ I will always remember Randy as the fellow I knew in High School. He was smart, though he denied it. He was a talented football player. He had a quick wit and a way with sarcasm which is why we got along even though we were usually sparring. And he was a good guy. He lives on in the fond memories of his many high school friends, teammates, teachers and coaches. I hope he has found the peace he was always searching for. May God bless and keep him until we all meet again.

“ There are not words to say that can heal the hurt and pain you are feeling right now. Just please know that you are in our thoughts and prayers. God is our refuge and strength. Lean on Him through this trying time. Randy graduated a year ahead of me at SIHS but I knew him well. He was a good friend, and a great football player. He always had a dry sense of humor, and could always keep you laughing without even trying. Hold on to the wonderful memories that can never be taken away. Tonda Martin Spence

“ I have sat here for awhile now attempting to find the right words to say to your family that will help soothe the pain you must be going through after losing Randy. We all know there are no such words, but it helps to know that friends are concerned and praying for you.

Randy left this earth for his true home after spending forty eight years here among his friends, family, and classmates. He grew up surrounded by love, grew in strength from the nurture of his family, and he knew he was considered to be special by so many. So many have reflected on his football prowess, his undying loyalty for his friends, and his ability to get in and out of trouble in a blink of an eye.

To lose someone this young is hard, but wherever Randy is tonight, this isn't goodbye because he will always be here in the hearts of the ones who still love him. Heaven has accepted him and he is truly home.

George, we all miss you and with every class reunion, we feel incomplete because you are not there. I love you.

Charles, I still love you for the man that you have always been, a good soul, worthy of a good life.

Brenda, how ironic that we just connected over FB and now you have lost a brother. My heart has hurt for you and I have kept you in my prayers.

Jimmy, I am thinking of you and keeping you close to my heart.

To the rest of the family, I share in your loss and I grieve with you. We will remember Randy with love.
