“ Sandy, Brad, and Tracy--Please know that our love, prayers and thoughts are with you today and throughout the coming days that God will grant you and the rest of your family peace and comfort as your lives continue without Rex as an active part of your daily lives. Memories abound and though they are no substitute for a loved one, they will become a tribute to the strong, wonderful man that we all knew and loved. He was a true inspiration to his friends and community. Blessings to you all with our love...Sharon and Johnny Cowan
