“ I first met Verba Lee around 1968. I had known her brother-in-law Rinky (Maurice) and his family several years before that. Since I considered Rinky’s family as my own family, Verba Lee and the rest of the family were like my family too, and have been ever since. Even though I never really was family, she sure made me feel like I was. My heart is heavy for the whole family as I look forward to the great reunion we will have after her resurrection.
