“Sling Shot... or Mr. Shot, as we called him was a uniquely good person. We own several of his wonderful slingshots. And he carved and created a unique walking cane for our friend, Harold that had a stroke. Sling Shot's wisdom and glowing smile shall be sorely missed at our breakfast hang-out, The Spirit store in Sandy Lake, LA. We loved Mr. Walt. He never complained about his troubles, health, etc. And he was always there to listen! He was a great man. Heaven took a away our friend... but we shall be together again one day. Our prayers and condolences to Sling Shot's family, friends, and neighbors. From the gang in "The-Trailer-In-The-Sky" at Cypress Road across from Sandy Lake.

“Since opening the Sandy Lake Xpressmart three years ago, it has been my pleasure to get to know and befriend many folks from the area and "Sling Shot" stands out as one that touched my life.

Our morning routine of breakfast and coffee while discussing daily events from the paper and life in general will be missed. I never heard the man complain about his medical struggles or have a cross word about anyone. He always talked about his family and shared many stories of his past with me about Kansas, the Navy and working in business.

Sling Shot got a big kick the morning I told him about my wife shooting me in forehead with one of his "shooters". It was a good natured, playful thing... really funny how it happened and Sling Shot always picked at me about it.

Will miss my friend.
