

William "Dub" Knapp Jr.

July 1, 1926 - December 16, 2010

Funeral services for William "Dub" Knapp Jr., 84 of Jonesville, La. will be held at Liberty Worship Center on Sunday, December 19, 2010 at 2:00 p.m. with Rev. Lester Johnson, Rev. Dwayne Knapp and Sharon K. White officiating. Interment will follow at Manning Cemetery with Rev. Rodney Reeves officiating under the direction of Young's Funeral Home.

Dub was born on July 1, 1926 in Harrisonburg, La. and passed away Thursday, December 16, 2010 at Rapides General Medical Center in Alexandria La. He was a resident of Jonesville, a Houses Painter and a member of Liberty Worship Center in Jonesville, La. He was an avid Hunter, Trapper, and Fisherman. He loved gardening but above all he loved his family and God. He will be missed by all who knew him. Dub proudly serviced his Country in United State Navy during World War II. He was a member of the Harrisonburg Masonic Lodge.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Aletha Carpenter Knapp; his parents, William Columbus Knapp Sr. and Meade Frith Knapp; three sisters, Ruby Bivona, Onita Johnston and Maudell Melacon; infant son, William C. Knapp II; two sons, Wayne Edward Knapp Sr. and William Garvis Knapp Sr; and one son-in-law, Otis Paul White Sr.

Survivors include one son, Dwayne Knapp and wife, Dianne of Watson, La;

two daughters, Sharon K. White of Harrisonburg, and Amy Reeves of Jonesville; one sister, Shirley White of Jonesville; one brother, Huey P. Knapp of Morgan City, La; two daughter-in-law, Pam Knapp of Harrisonburg, and Wanda Knapp of Shreveport, La; one ex-son-in-law, Wayne "Boo" Reeves of Sicily Island; 14 grandchildren, 27 great grandchildren; and 1 great-great-grandchild

The Pallbearers will be his grandsons

The family will receive friends at Liberty Worship Center from 5:00 pm to 9:00 pm Saturday, December 18, 2010.